Huh, the Hepburn railroad rate bill doesn't give the railroads any more rights than they had before.

The Rev. R. H. Whitaker, of Raleigh, says long courtships are demoralizing. Some short ones are too.

A woman in Sterling, Ill., sued a man for $5,000 for kissing her. After the jury looked at her they cut down the price to $139.

Now comes the report that there is revolutionary trouble in Colombia. President Reyes has declared martial law at Bogota.

Russia wants to borrow $250,000,000. Judging from reports, collateral is scarce but anyhow we pass it over to J. Pierpont Morgan.

We thought it was coming. Now the Asheboro Courier comes to the front and claims that Attorney General Hadley, of Missouri, is Randolph county stock.

"A man loses more by lying than he gains," says the Chicago News. Lying to men doesn't pay but laying for them does. Col. Mann, of Town Topics, laid for several of them.

After all it might have been worth the money to some people to keep Town Topics from publishing snatches of personal history, a collection of which the editor keeps on file for future reference.

Whatever the result of the Deuel-Hapgood-Town Topics libel case may be, it would appear that the disclosures should break up Col. Mann's game of borrowing money from nabobs without paying it back.

As the Republicans in Congress are satisfied by faith that progress is being made with the Panama canal work, they should vote the Democrats a junket to the isthmus in order to stop opposition.

Having ascertained that all the powers hob-nobbing in the Moroccan conference are for the open door for commercial profligacy in the Sultan's bailiwick, our delegates should get cold feet and jump the game before it gets hot.

There is an intimation that a woman's wiles to coax a lovely hat, a fine set of furs or a diamond ring out of her susceptible husband, is graft. No use at all to use the word graft in that connection, when the word flimflam will cover the circumstances in the case.

ATTACHED THEATRE TRUNKS.

A novel attachment was brought in Justice Furlong's court yesterday by the Southern Express Company against three trunks, the property of Miss Cornelia Stafford, a member of the Payton Sisters Stock Company, which played at the Academy of Music here last week. Miss Stafford was preparing to leave with the company for the next engagement at Newbern yesterday afternoon, when two of her trunks at the theatre and another at the Rountree House, where she was a guest, were taken in charge by Constable Savage.

It seems that some time ago Miss Stafford received a trunk of clothing from a costumer North while she was playing in Jacksonville, Fla. The trunk was shipped with a C. O. D., of $47.69 on the property, but the express man in Jacksonville who delivered the trunk to Miss Stafford neglected to collect the C. O. D., and only collected something like $5 Express carriage charges. It seems that later after the company left Jacksonville and Miss Stafford learned of the amount due on the trunk, she tried to pay the express agent in Newberry, S. C., but he would not receive the money. She allowed the matter to go on until she reached Wilmington. In the meantime the express people at Jacksonville communicated with the office here and the attachment was brought, Herbert McClammy and W. P. Gafford, Esqs., representing the Express Company. Miss Stafford employed Brooke G. Empie, Esq., admitted the claim and her willingness to pay it, but she would not pay the cost and so it was settled on that basis, the costs being charged up to the negligent express delivery clerk at the Jacksonville end of the line. Miss Stafford promptly settled up the matter and left with the company on the afternoon train as she had expected.

BRIGHT BOY IS DEAD.

Sixteen-Year-Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Truelove Died Sunday.

Friends will tenderly sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Truelove in the death of their young son, Master R. W. Truelove, 16 years old, which occurred at the family home, No. 819 Chesnut street, at 3:05 o'clock Sunday afternoon after a very brief illness with a pulmonary trouble, complicated with la grippe. He was an exceptionally bright young fellow and was a student at the Cape Fear Academy where he was held in the highest esteem by his companions and teacher. His taking away is very sad indeed and the bereaved ones have the sympathy of all.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Elijah Hewlett, Cicero Craig, Willie Rourk, Alex. Miller, A. B. Rhodes and Leslie Meredith.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Lecture By Mr. Bicknell Young C. S. B., of Chicago, at Academy Last Night

MANY WERE IN ATTENDANCE

Speaker Introduced By Hon. A. M. Waddell—Some Striking Passages From Distinguished Visitor's Discourse.

It was with very much pleasure that members of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and their friends in this city last night heard the lecture of Mr. Bicknell Young, C. S. B., of Chicago, at the Academy of Music. The attendance was very good indeed. The audience was cultured and close in its attention to the words of the speaker. Mr. Young had no word of harsh criticism for other creeds or beliefs. He presented in an able and entertaining manner the cause of Christian Science, earnestly eloquently.

The stage of the Academy was set to a drawing room scene, decorated with palms and ferns. The distinguished visitor was introduced by Hon. A. M. Waddell, who spoke of the broad spirit of toleration that should obtain in religious affairs and of his personal feeling in matters of the kind. He was very graceful in his presentation of the speaker.

Mr. Young is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., and is a gentleman of engaging presence and rare gifts as a speaker. He has previously visited the Wilmington Church and about two years ago delivered a lecture in the Academy of Music similar to that last evening.

After the exercises last night Mr. Young was entertained in the Christian Science rooms, in the Odd Fellows' building, where a number of his audience at the Academy had the pleasure of a personal introduction to him.

His address last night was heard by a large number of people not members of the local congregation of Christian Scientists, many of whom expressed a deep impression by the arguments advanced by the gifted speaker.

Mr. Young said in part:

"Christian Science may be defined as the science of all that relates to God, and is science not only in relation to healing, but as corrective in relation to all problems of existence. Accepted theories of religion and science have scoffed at the association of these words, but reason and logic show conclusively that science must relate to truth, and therefore to God, since God is the cause and basis of all that is true.

"Christian Science does not proclaim a new God nor a new law, but comes declaring the same God, and the same law that Jesus declared, the one infinite eternal God, who is good, and his good and unchangeable law. Christian Science declares the omnipotence, omniscience and omnipresence of God as do all other denominations, and upon that basis shows that evil has no power, knowledge nor presence; in other words, that it is unreal.

"Christian Science never ascribes evil to God or makes him in any way responsible for it, but shows that evil originates in a belief of material existence entirely apart from God, and unsupported by science or truth. Of all people, Christian Scientists believe most absolutely in Christ. They accept the teachings of Christ Jesus without reservation. They declare that his command to heal the sick is as binding as that to preach the gospel, and that there is no evidence that it was intended for his time only. It was scientific religion that healed the sick in the time of Jesus and his disciples, and it does the same work now, and must always do it, since his life and work were an example for all time, and his method was a universal and imperishable heritage of man.

What Christian Science Means.

"The steps of salvation in Christian Science are not unusual. As in other denominations they involve the admission or conviction of sin, sorrow for wrong doing, or repentance, and reformation manifested in a corrected life. Salvation in Christian Science, however, includes exemption from sickness, want and woe, as well as from sin. It is not contingent upon death, but is a way of life, a way of righteousness. Christian Science is founded upon the Bible. The Christian Science text book, Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker G. Eddy, is a commentary upon the Bible. Other denominations have commentaries, but no other book in the world has ever accomplished as much as this one. Thousands of people have testified that they have been healed, some of them of so-called incurable diseases, through the perusal of this book. In some instances this testimony has been given in courts of law, and has not been in the least shaken by cross-examination. Many of these cases involved the most terrible diseases known to mankind, such as cancer, tuberculosis, locomotor ataxia, and in other instances such diseases as asthma, hay fever, St. Vitus' dance and others.

"It is erroneous to suppose that Christian Scientists deny the reality of things. They affirm the eternal existence of all things, and that they exist in the divine mind in their perfect individuality and proper order. They deny the materiality of things, including all the discordant conditions that material things manifest.

No Quarrel With Doctors.

"Christian Scientists are in no wise arrayed against those who believe in materia medica. They were all believers in it themselves until they found in Christian Science a more efficacious way of healing. This way they believe to be the very best one, because it is God's way, as shown in the works of Jesus. Although charitably disposed toward those who practice materia medica, we, in common with all well informed people, recognize the fact that its merely an experimental system. Surely after four thousand years it ought to be beyond this stage. Furthermore, it is a self-confessed condition of weakness that combinations of medical societies and

A. C. L. WAYCROSS SHOPS

The award of the half-million dollar contract for the erection of the mammoth Atlantic Coast Line shops in Waycross, Ga., was postponed yesterday at the office of Mr. R. E. Smith, general superintendent of motive power, until next Monday. The reason for the postponement was not given at the office of Mr. Smith where inquiry was made, but the presumption is that in an affair of such magnitude there are always more or less details to be worked out that cannot be accomplished in a day. A special from Waycross with reference to the construction of the shops says:

During the past month there have been a great number of contractors in Waycross, going over the grounds and arranging their bids. The shops will be much larger than was first contemplated by the Coast Line, and the plans recently approved by the board of directors will require an expenditure of at least $1,000,000. The bids of the contractors will range from $450,000 to $550,000 for the construction of the buildings, sewerage and water systems only.

The shops will be located in the western part of the city, and will cover a space of nearly one square mile

In addition to the shops, the Coast Line will construct an immense freight yard, and added to the shop, the Atlantic Coast Line's unbroken property will cover a space of about two miles and a quarter.

The company has about 2,300 miles of trackage on its second division, and the repair work for all of the rolling stock of this division will be done at the Waycross shops.

It is stated that about 2,000 men will be given employment and the citizens here believe that at least 6,000 inhabitants will be added to the city by the time the shops are completed.

The principal buildings will include a machine shop, erecting shop, boiler shop, coach shop, paint shop, blacksmith shop, planing mill, foundry, pattern shop, two-story store house, office building, dry kiln, freight car repair shed with a capacity of 150 freight cars at one time, round house, where twenty locomotives can be repaired at one time, and a number of smaller buildings.

The entire plant will be operated by electricity and one may judge the amount of electric power required from the fact that the dynamos will generate five times as much electricity as is now required by the entire city of Waycross.

Since the announcement that the Coast Line intended to begin work on the new shops within the next few weeks, property values in Waycross have been greatly increased, and at the present time there is little property on the market. A large number of new dwelling houses will be needed to supply the needs of the new inhabitants.

HIS BROTHER'S DEATH.

Capt. Harvey C. Twining returned last night from Pleasant Grove, Pa., near Baltimore, Md., whither he was summoned last week on account of the death of his brother, Dr. R. S. Twining, which occurred at the home of his aunt in that place, last Tuesday. Dr. Twining was 45 years of age and was a son of the late Capt. Coleman Twining, who came South in 1876 to become superintendent of the Pennsylvania Land and Lumber Company, then largely interested in the famous Green Swamp lands. Dr. Twining left Wilmington about 20 years ago, and was at the time of his death engaged in the practice of his profession in Pleasant Grove. He was a man of generous impulses, a ready wit and a companionable man. He is most pleasantly remembered in Wilmington by residents of the city at the time he lived here and the news of his death will be received with sincere regret by them. Dr. Twining is survived by two brothers and one sister, Capt. H. C. Twining and Mrs. George T. Johnson, of this city, and Dr. A. Fred. Twining, of Slocum, Ala. The funeral of Dr. Twinisg was conducted at Pleasant Grove Friday and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground there.

MAYOR'S MONDAY COURT.

Ten cases were disposed of in the police court yesterday, most of them unimportant. Zeno Wortham, colored, for being drunk and disposed to resist Officer C. G. Jones who made the arrest Saturday night was fined $10 and costs. Henderson Hayes made his monthly appearance, charged with being drunk and down at Seventh and Castle streets, from whence he was sent down by Officer M. C. Gray. Henderson was given 20 days on the roads, the variation by the Mayor from 30 days being "for luck." Henderson would be the supremest test for a Keeley or an Oppenheimer institute.

Yesterday morning Mr. Z. W. Whitehead had Alice Ferguson, Mary Ferguson and Fannie Baker, colored women, arrested for disorderly conduct in a house which they occupy in an alley near Mr. Whitehead's residence. He failed to appear in court against them and was taxed with the costs by the Mayor for his non-appearance. He came in later, however, and had new warrants made out for the women. They will be tried again in the police court to-day.

Three Schooners With Cargoes.

The schooners C. C. Lister, Capt. Moore, and Bayard Hopkins, Capt. Thorkelsen, arrived Sunday, the first named from New York with cargo of crushed rock for the government work at Fort Caswell and the Bayard Hopkins, from Philadelphia, with fertilizers for discharge at the Wilmington compress. The schooner Jno. I. Snow, previously reported as having arrived Saturday night, brought cargo of cement for the Seaboard Air Line. The schooner Everett Webster, 383 tons, Capt. Maxwell, arrived last night with cargo of fertilizer constituents for the Armour Fertilizer Works.

TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Lamb Case in New Hanover Superior Court Was Begun Yesterday Morning

BUT EIGHT JURORS SELECTED

Only Eight Jurors Selected——Third Special Venire of One Hundred Are For o-day to Complete Panel—Hard Struggle.

Two special venires of 100 and 75 men respectively have been exhausted, with the regular panel of 18, and a third venire of 100 has been ordered for to-day from which to select a jury for the trial of the Lamb case, which was begun in the Superior Court upon the convening of the second week of the term yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. When the hour for adjournment came at about 6 o'clock yesterday evening only eight of the twelve jurors needed had been agreed upon by the prosecution and defence. Mr. Marsden Bellamy, of counsel for the prisoner announced to the court at that hour that he believed it would require fully one hundred more men from which to select the remaining four jurors. Judge Webb adopted the suggestion and instructed the sheriff to put as many deputies out as possible and to accept no excuse from anyone.

Seven of the eight jurors already selected were chosen from the special venire of 75 returned by the sheriff at the opening of court and the regular panel of 18 for the week. The two regular jurors are G. F. G. Tienken and A. B. Darden. Those from the first special venire chosen are Messrs. C. F. Craig, R. M. Westcott Eli H. Davis, Jr., W. VanHardin, and William Tienken. At 1 o'clock the venire was exhausted and Judge Webb ordered another 75 to be summoned by 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Stedman and his deputies "got busy" in the meantime and when court reconvened at 4 P. M., 45 of the 75 had been summoned. Five of the number were excused for reasons sufficient to the court. From the 40 remaining only one juror—Henry Maultsby—was selected during the entire day.

The work of choosing the jury will be resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Every point in the case is being carefully guarded and the work of picking the men to pass upon the life or death of the prisoner is exceedingly tedious for both sides. Solicitor Duffy is being assisted in this work by Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., and the interests of the defendant are being looked after by Marsden Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., Col. A. M. Waddell and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq. The defence is entitled to 23 peremptory challenges and 18 of this number have been exhausted, while a great many have been made for cause. The State has only four peremptories but is permitted to stand 10 per cent. of the venire to the "foot of the panel," calling them last unless a jury is completed in the meantime. Of the peremptories, the State has exhausted three of the four and also made many for cause. It is expected that the jury will be completed by to-day noon, but hardly before. It may be that every name in the box will be drawn before the requisite number of men agreeable to both sides is obtained.

All day long yesterday the routine of calling one after another man to the front and questioning him under oath as to his qualification to sit as a juror dragged wearily on. Many were excused because they were not freeholders, others because they did not believe in capital punishment, a few because they had not paid poll tax and still others because they had formed and expressed an opinion that the defendant is guilty. However, of the latter class there appears to have been a smaller number than in previous murder trials in New Hanover.

Lamb, who is 25 years old, a rather diminutive man, appeared in court yesterday neatly dressed in a black, well-fitting suit of clothes, white linen and a small crush hat at which he twisted nervously on his knee. Beside him sat his sister, whose self-sacrifice in behalf of her brother has previously been spoken of, and another sister, widowed only a few months, both from Florence, S. C. They remained in the court room all day and watched interestedly every proceeding. Young Lamb occupied a seat just behind his counsel. He has been permitted the luxury of a shave since his last appearance in court and looks anything else than the criminal. A friend of the family, Mr. C. B. Ham, of Florence, is here with the sisters of the unfortunate young man.

Out in the witness room, beyond the court scene, are Sadie Garrett, at whose house the killing occurred, and another woman, waiting to be called to testify against the young man, the latter having been in the room at the time the shooting occurred.

The case will be hard fought from the start and every effort will be made by counsel for the defendant to secure a verdict of acquittal or of less than first degree murder. It is doubtful if the trial will be finished before the last of the week in which event the case of Shockley will go over. The trial is being attended by a large number of people.

Members of the jury already selected will not be alowed to separate until the trial is completed and a verdict is returned. They remained at the Court House last night in charge of Deputy W. H. Cox. Judge Webb very carefully counselled them as to their duties in the premises before adjourning court yesterday evening.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurange on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build up our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

WILMINGTON. N. C.

Tuesday Morning, Jan. 30.

OUTRAGE ON AMERICANS.

There is considerable indignation over the determination of the Republicans in Congress to force the American people of Arizona into statehood with the Greasers and half-breeds of New Mexico. The Baltimore Sun of Thursday in referring to the passage of the statehood bill by the House on Wednesday last, says this about it:

"The protests of Arizona against joint Statehood with New Mexico have not fallen upon sympathetic ears, so far as the House of Representatives is concerned. By the vote of 192 to 165 the House yesterday adopted a rule providing for the final vote on the measure this afternoon. Forty-two Republicans voted against the adoption of the rule, but the Republican majority in the House is so large that their defection was not felt. Arizona has made a strong fight against incorporation with New Mexico, but the fates seem to be against that unfortunate territory. Perhaps the Senate may save the Arizonans from the fate which they dread. Every consideration of justice and equity entitles them to fair treatment. But it seems that their wishes in the matter are to be ignored. Political exigencies require that the territory should be forced into union with New Mexico. If Arizona were a province of the Philippines or an island in the West Indies, Uncle sam might possibly feel that its inhabitants had no rights which he was bound to respect. As it is American soil, however, and its inhabitants are Americans, native and to the manner born, the Arizonans are entitled to better treatment. It will not be possible to rush the Statehood bill through the Senate with the same haste with which it is to be railroaded through te House. Perhaps the Senate may be able to save Arizona from amalgamation with New Mexico. It came to the rescue in fine style the last time the bill was in Congress."

We are not so sure but that the Republican Senate will do just like the Republican House. President Roosevelt is back of the Statehood Bill, and while a number of House Republicans joined the Democrats in an effort to defeat this unholy bill, the pressure from the President prevailed. The same result doubtless awaits the bill in the Senate this week, for on Friday the Senate committee on territories agreed to favorably report the House bill. Unless the Republican "insurgents" in the Senate are stronger and more numerous than those in the House the fate of Arizona will be sealed.

There is no homogeneity between the people of Arizona and New Mexico, and to force American people into an undersirable alliance, on equal footing with the pie-bald population of New Mexico is a stupendous wrong-deliberately done for political reasons. The admission of the four territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Indian Territory as four States means three if not four Democratic States to send Democratic Senators and Representatives to Congress, and for that reason there are to be only two States. Any one of the four territories have more inhabitants than several States heretofore admitted. It only goes to show to what length the Republican party will carry politics. Patriotism cuts no ice in its policy.

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON.

The Raleigh News and Observer has been publishing in its editorial columns object lessons in the exhibit of success made by insurance companies organized and conducted by our North Carolina people. The showing made at Wilmington, Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte is flattering and it is well to let the people of the State learn that not only do the business men of North Carolina know how to establish and conduct large manufacturing, financial and commercial enterprises, but that they have the ability to make the home insurance companies as successful and safe as any, the amount of capital invested being taken into consideration.

In doing that very thing the News and Observer is doing a good work, and in that line it publishes the following editorial in Sunday's issue:

"The people of North Carolina owe it to themselves to stop the tremendous drain upon the State's money that has gone to outside insurance companies. In round figures, of every dollar paid for fire insurance fifty cents goes for expenses and to pile up a big surplus in the home office. If the home office is in North Carolina, the money is invested here and helps every line of industry. If the home office is in Hartford or New York, the reserve and the surplus are piled up there. It will be a long time before home companies will be strong enough to carry all the risks, but it will be the part of wisdom for North Carolina folks to give home companies as much of their insurance as they can carry.

"A few days ago we published the statement of the Carolina Insurance Company of Wilmington. It showed progress. During the past year it has written or renewed $1,965,274 and now has in force $3,454,434. Under the prudent and careful management of President R. R. Bellamy and Secretary M. S. Willard the company has met every loss promptly, added to its surplus, and is now making plans to erect a splendid office building in Wilmington.

"Is it not a matter of State pride that this and other home insurance companies are prospering and adding to general prosperity here at home, instead of sending all this money into distant States to build up their industries while our own starve or struggle for the lack of necessary capital?"

We have more than once spoken of the success of the Carolina Insurance Company and the ability with which it is conducted, and we take occasion to again remark that its management has made it a credit to Wilmington. Not only have our Wilmington insurance men, demonstrated that they can successfully conduct an insurance company, but the same can be said of the North Carolinians who have won achievements in that line in several of our cities. We quite agree with the ter of insurance as well as in the making of our hog and hominy at home, we should patronize our home companies and keep our insurance money at home.

THE SUN ALMANAC.

One of the most highly appreciated annuals which comes to The Star is the Sun Almanac, published by the A. S. Abell Company, proprietors of the Baltimore Sun, one of the great newspapers of this country. It is the 31st number of this almanac, and it presents in compact form a great variety of valuable information. It is a reliable chronological and astronomical hand-book, and while it is the recognized "Blue Book of Maryland," its succinct grouping of general information renders it a handy reference book everywhere. Among its valuable features are the brief records of events of 1895, and a variety of information about our Federal government and national affairs.

CURRENT COMMENT

—Let's see, Bigelow, who was on the Isthmus 28 hours, knows absolutely nothing about conditions there. And "Press Agent" Bishop, who has never been on the Isthmus at all—how much does he know about it?—Columbia (S. C.) State.

—Our news columns yesterday carried a story of destruction wrought by flood in Mitchell county last week, among other damages done nine miles of the track of the new South & Western Railroad having been washed away. In this story is another powerful argument for the appalachian forest reserve.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—A more disreputable thing was never done than when Rollins threw down his friends—if he did—but this has been done by the Republicans for forty years when the exigencies of the occasion demanded it. In the old days, however, the organization was so perfect that no one ever gave it away or kicked. If he did that was the last of him. They erased him from the list. —Greensboro Record.

—The rottenness of Wall street financiering methods was fully exposed in the insurance investigation. The despicable vanity and folly of rich society men and women were laid bare in the suit for libel brought by the owner of Town Topics against Collier's Weekly, the trial resulting in favor of the defendant. The showing in both cases was deplorable and disgusting, still it was not representative of the life and conduct of the great mass of the people of New York any more than it is of that of the people of the country.—Columbia Record.

—President Daughtridge and Secretary Pogue and the other authorities of the State Fair have decided, upon his return from abroad, to extend an invitation to Hon. William Jennings Bryan to address the people of North Carolina at the next State Fair. It is to be hoped that the engagement of the eloquent Nebraskan will permit him to come to North Carolina at that time. He would receive a cordial welcome from men of all parties that would make him know that he was in the house of his friends. He is by common consent the greatest leader of the Democracy in America.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—In the trial of the Samuels revenue case at Greensboro, one Cardwell, of Wilkes county, testified, Friday, on report in The Industrial News: "I live in a settlement of blockaders, but have not reported them. Yes, I am a justice of the peace, and the reason I have not issued warrants is because I had no one to serve them. There is no constable in the township and the deputy sheriff there is an illicit distiller himself and is indicted here along with a lot of others in the Federal Court." The deputy sheriff a blockader and under indictment; a justice of the peace winking at blockading which he knew to be going on all around him and giving as a pretext for his non-action and statement that he had no constable to serve his precepts! Isn't that a tale to tell?—Charlotte Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Crowd up front," shouted the conductor. "You're right," gasped a passenger at the rear. "I noticed it. Crewd here, too."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Wiggs—Why do you always regard him with suspicon? Waggs—Well, every time I see him he has a different umbrella.—Pphiladelphia Record.

—The Humane Dentist—And will you have gas, madam? The Cautious Patient—Well, you dont think I am going to let you tinker about in the dark, do you?—The Sketch.

—He (cautiously)—Would you say "Yes" if I asked you to marry me. She (also cautiously)—Would you ask me to marry you if you thought I'd say "yes?"—Illustrated Bits.

—The Humane Dentist—And will you have gas, madam? The Cautious Patient—Well, you don't suppose I'm going to let you tinker about in the dark, do you?—The Sketch.

—Neighbor—That tenant of yours in the top flat is a most disreputable person. He gets drunk six nights in the week, beats his wife, maltreats the children, and, I have good reason to believe that his moral character is as bad as his habits. Landlord—Oh, surely, you must be mistaken! He pays his rent regularly on the first day of every month.—Soverville Journal.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Jan. 29.—The cotton market was very nervous and unsettled, with March breaking through 11 cents and the general list making a new low level for the movement. The close was steady at a net decline of 5 to 10 points. Sales were estimated at 700,000 bales. The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 10 points on old crop months and unchanged on later positions, the advance being in response to firmer cables than expected and a continued good demand in the Liverpool spot market. There did not seem to be much aggressive bear pressure, but there was continued heavy selling through wire and commission houses presumably for long account, and the market soon sagged off to the closing prices of Saturday. Local professionals seeing that their expectation of a reaction had been premature, turned against the list toward midday and a very sharp break followed with March selling at 10.95 and May at 11.10 or about 22 to 24 points net lower. New Orleans acted very weak and unsettled on the decline, and some private wires were received claiming an easier spot situation and freer offerings. There was a good deal of covering toward the close and prices were finally about 15 to 16 points up from the lowest, but there was little indication of bull support. Southern spot markets according to official advices were unchanged to 1-4c lower.

Estimated receipts at the ports today 18,917 bales, against 17,792 last week and 32,378 last year. For the week (estimated) 100,000 bales, against 111,085 last week, and 150,605 last year. DRANK TO THE DREGS

HARD DRINKER FOR 20 YEARS

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

For twenty years I was a hard drinker; kept under the influence of whiskey all the time, very often to the extent that I could neither walk nor talk, and, though educated, naturally quick and industrious, seldom kept a situation more than a few months. My employers would beseech me to stop drinking, saying my work was perfectly satisfactory when sober, but that I was unreliable while drinking. Finally, in July, 1902, I reached that stage when no one would employ me. The few friends left determined to send me to take the Gold Cure. I had no faith in it, and would not give my consent to try it until I was incarcerated in the city jail for a few weeks to sober up. From there I was taken by a relative to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., where I spent five very pleasant weeks, conscientiously taking the treatment and obeying in every respect the instructions given by the physicians. I left there with a clear head and perfect health; my former employer gave me work at once, and I have ever since thanked God for the Keeley Institute and the friends who sent me there. The treatment restored my lost manhood; and if conscientiously taken will do as much for any other man, for I had drunk the cup to its dregs. My short stay in Greensboro will ever be a pleasant recollection. The accommodations and fare were excellent, the officers were courteous, considerate and kind. There I met among the patients some of the most polished gentlemen in the country, bankers, manufacturers, merchants, engineers, judges, lawyers, physicians, men from every calling in life. The Keeley Treatment has saved the lives of many in this city. If I am asked why a man addicted to drunkenness should take the Keeley Treatment I would answer because it takes away that terrible craving for stiumulants; because it cures and makes a man of what was a wreck. Gratefully yours,

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Wilmington Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition,
Nothing taxes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Ithing Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake.
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119½ Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no one knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch, because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told be about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

the medical fraternity generally should come before our Legislatures demanding special legislation; the tendency of which is almost invariably to shut out all other systems. Nor can any valid excuse be given, as far as Christian Science is concerned, on the ground of protection to the public, since Christian Scientists do not advertise nor sanction quackery, and they believe in obeying the regulations of health boards in relation to contagious and other diseases.

How Disease Is Cured.

"Those who believe that mentality plays some part in disease and its cure generally look in the wrong direction, and say that the cures of Christian Science are affected by mental suggestion, hypnotism, will power, mental science, which is spurious and not related to Christian Science, or to some other erroneous or material belief. Christian Scientists, however, declare that it is God who heals diseases through Christian Science, and they of all people know best.

The Discoverer and Founder.

"We scarcely dare to think what the world would have been had not there appeared from time to time a man or woman good enough and great enough to be touched by eternal truth, and brave and self-sacrificing enough to stand for it. Mrs. Eddy discerned and proclaimed to the world the God-given freedom of the race from all sickness, sin, want and woe. She revealed the science by which men may begin to realize that freedom and enter upon their heritage of dominion over evil. Some time this knowledge had to come. According to the promise of Jesus, it was to be the spirit of truth, the Comforter leading into all truth. Some one had to be good and pure above all others in order to perceive it. Any great discovery along a given line is always made by one whose thoughts, desires, and studies, are reaching beyond those of other people.

"That Christian Science has a place in the world's thought today is due entirely to Mrs. Eddy. There was a time when she stood absolutely alone with God, and incurred the ridicule of ignorance and the hostility of theoretical forms of religion and material modes of medicine because of her discovery of Christian Science. Today the whole world is uplifted by her teachings and example, and because of it, human thought is rising somewhat from the depths of gross materialism. These are the simple facts. I should consider it presumptuous to praise Mrs. Eddy. A character touched by the deepest humility and illumined with love to God and compassion for man is Christlike; it needs no eulogy. Her life is an open book wherein are recorded only good deeds. The signs of these times are prophetic. They point to the gratitude to God that is appearing in the hearts of men for the life and works of the leader of this great movement, destined as it is to accomplish the regeneration of mankind."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Alfred Fox, of Madison county, was run over and instantly killed by a freight train on Friday afternoon, near Marshall. Mr. Fox, who was 70 or 75 years old, was walking on the railroad tracks.

—John Mowry, a wealthy colored citizen of Salisbury, died Saturday night, aged 35. He was a tailor and left an estate valued at $20,000 to $30,000, part of which he inherited from his father, also a wealthy colored man. The younger Mowry was well educated and respected.

—Clarence D. Wilkie, a well known young newspaper man and local editor of the Rutherfordton Sun, of which he was the founder, committed suicide at his home in Rutherfordton Friday night at 10:30 o'clock by shooting himself through the right temple with at 32-calibre Smith and Wesson pistol. He was 29 years old and brooded over financial troubles.

—There has been organized at Goldsboro a land and timber investment company, with $125,000 authorized capital stock, of which $25,000 has been subscribed. The company is composed of several of Goldsboro's most successful and conservative citizens, and Capt. J. B. Edgerton has been elected president-treasurer.

Abel Crews, aged about 18 years and son of Postmaster Shell Crews, of Dennis, Forsyth county, was killed on the Shenandoah division of the Norfolk & Western railroad, beyond Roanoke, Thursday night. He was a fireman on a freight train and while looking out of the window the train ran on a long trestle and young Crews' head struck a beam with such force that he was jerked out of the cab window.

—Shortly after midnight Friday night the wires of the Catawba Power Company which lights the streets of Charlotte went down and the city was in total darkness during the remainder of the night. Telephone poles, telegraph poles and trees over the city succumbed to the heavy load of ice and fell in large numbers. There were many live wires on the streets but no serious accident resulted.

—Dave Porter, an old colored man, was instantly killed Friday night by coming in contact with a live wire at Spencer. The heavy sleet had so weighted down the telephone lines that a wire broke and fell across the trolley wire. In the dark several men passed it, first a young colored man, then another negro, then Dr. J. W. Carlton and last the dead man. The first was knocked down by something entirely unknown to him and the second profiting none by the experience, touched it and was jerked flat. Still no cause for the sudden shocks could be ascribed to anything and Dr. Carlton walked against the wire. He was considerably scorched and knocked down. The wire was swinging when the fourth man was struck in the breast. He fell with the wire squarely across his body and was burned to death instantly. Men who tried to help him were ordered back and R. K. Feamster, a machinist, knocked the wire off with an umbrella. In doing this, he was severely burned, but suffered no other injuries.

—For the purpose of discussing and adopting plans for closer federation of different denominations, committees from all of the Reformed Churches in the United States, including the various branches of the Presbyterian Church and the German and Dutch Reformed Churches will hold a conference in Charlotte March 14th. This conference will be in the nature of a sequel to one held in Pittsburg, Pa., in March, 1904. The Rev. Dr. J. C. Howerton, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was instrumental in securing the conference for Charlotte. There were bids for it from New York, Boston and a number of other large cities. The conference will be composed of about sixty of the most prominent men in the various churches. The sessions will be held in the First Presbyterian church. The churches to be represented are: Reformed Presbyterian, Reformed Church in America; Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; Presbyterian Church in the United States; Second Presbyterian church; Southern Sigerman Reformed Church in the United States, and probably others.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

WORLD'S FASTEST TIME MADE BY AUTOMOBILE

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Ormond-Daytona Beach, Fla., Jan. 29.—Victor Demogeot, of France, was crowned speed king of the world this afternoon on the Daytona sands after driving his gasoline car two miles in the marvelous time of 58 4-5 seconds. Demogeot maintained a speed of 123 miles an hour to make his record.

The two mile a minute race closed the automobile tournament for this season. The competition on this event had narrowed down to Marriottt, in the steamer, and to the big two hundred horse-power French car. Demogeot finally was selected.

On the first trial Marriott, went first but the best he could do was one minute and three seconds. Demogeot brought the crowd to its feet by reducing Marriott's time to 1 minute 1 2-5 seconds. Referee Morrill decided to give each car a trial to see if the time could be brought within the minute. Marriott came first again and this time faster. He made the two miles in 59 3-5 seconds. It seemed impossible that the clumsy looking French car should reduce this, but the Florida Times-Union $1,000 trophy was lost to America a few moments later when Demogeot thundered over the two mile course in 58 4-5 seconds, the fastest speed ever attained by an automobile. Demogeot was crowned with a laurel wreath by Miss Mary Simrall, of Ormond, Fla., while several thousand persons cheered. An automobile parade followed and thus ended the tournament.

The other races of the day were of little cossequence. Summary:

Thirty mile championship, American cars, all powers—Won by Marriott, 40-horse power steam; gross time, 34 18 2-5. Actual time, 28:38 2-5. Second Christie, 110 horse-power gasoline; time, 37:34 4-5. Kulick did not finish.

Fifteen mile open championship—Won by Lancia, 110 horse-power gasoline, 11:00 flat. Second, Hilliard, 80 horse-power gasoline; time, 11:36 3-5. Cedrino, 110 horse-power gasolina, did not finish.

Ten mile open championship and ten mile heavyweight championship (run together)—Won by Lancia, 110 horse-power gasoline; time, 6:19 3-5. Second, Marriott, 90 horse-power steam; time, 7:35 3-5.

Ten mile, open handicap—Won by Lancia, scratch, 110 horse-power gasoline; time, 6:18 2-5. Second, Hilliard, one minute handicap, 80 horse-power gasoline; time, 8:03 4-5. Harding, 2 minute handicap, did not finish.

Two mile minute trial—First set won by Demogeot, 200 horse-power gasoline; time, 1 minute, 1 2-5 seconds. Second, Marriott, 40 horse-power steam; time 1 minute, 3 seconds. Second old set won by Demogeot; time :58 4-5 seconds; second Marriott; time, 59 3-5 seconds.

GREENE-GAYNOR TRIAL.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 29.—The Greene and Gaynor trial in the Federal court this morning developed a mass of contracts and proposals, issued from the office of the United States engineer at Savannah. These were admitted as evidence over the objection of the attorneys for the defense.

Tomorrow the offering of documentary evidence will continue and one of the government's attorneys said to the representative of the Associated Press that two or three days more will be required before the examination of witnesses is begun.

Judge Speer today admitted in evidence the contract of the government with W. T. Gaynor, not as evidence of conspiracy on the part of the alleged co-conspirators, but upon the ground that the contract was a joint one of W. T. Gaynor and the defendants now on trial. The court said that if these assurances should not, in the opinion of the court, be sustained, the evidence would be excluded.

While Judge Speer was delivering his ruling the District Attorney interrupted, seeking to explain an apparently misunderstood position of the the government's counsel. The court showed resentment, saying that Mr. Erwin had several times objected to the language employed by the court, endeavoring apparently to indicate that which should be used. "I would have you know Mr. Erwin," said the judge, "that this court is not giving leading strings to anybody."

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT TO LADY.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Jan. 29.—After clinging to the back of a runaway horse for three miles Miss Shelby Converse, the daughter of Rear Admiral Converse, was thrown and seriously injured late this afternoon. Miss Converse was riding with Lieutenant Stephen C. Rowan, U. S. N., along the Cabin John bridge road when the young woman's horse took fright and in her efforts to manage the animal, the curb chain broke. Before her escort could assist her the horse dashed forward toward the city at a mad pace and ran for three miles until he turned at 20th and M streets and collided with a truck team and all the horses went down in a mass. Miss Converse was thrown over one of the horses and falling was pinioned under one of them. She was unconscious when taken to a nearby drugstore but revived when taken to her home.

WANT SOCIAL EQUALITY.

Negroes in Massachusetts Oppose Jamestown Appropriation.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., Jan 29.—A delegation of colored citizens of the State called upon the chairman of the committee of Federal relations of the State Legislature today and protested against the appropriation of any money by the State for an exhibition at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907, as recommended by Governor Curtis Guild, unless the State obtains from the commonwealth of Virginia a promise that all citizens of Massachusetts whatever their race or color shall receive the same treatment at the exposition.

It is claimed that at the St. Louis exposition colored people were served food at one place and members of the white race at another and that members of the black race were otherwise discriminated against.

KING OF DENMARK DIES SUDDENLY

Noted and Beloved Monarch Died of Heart Failure Yesterday Afternoon

FREDERICK VIII NOW KING

Dead Monarch Was the Father of the Queen of England, Empress Dowager of Russia, and the King of Greece.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Jan. 29.—Christian the Ninth, the aged King of Denmark, dean of the crowned heads of Europe, father of King George of Greece, of Queen Alexander, of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Dowager Empress Maria Feodorovna, of Russia, grandfather of King Haakon the Seventh, of Norway, and related by blood or by marriage to the most of the European rulers, died with startling suddenness in the Amalianborg Palace this afternoon. The accession of his successor, Prince Frederick, his eldest son, who will be known as Frederick the Eighth, will be proclaimed to-morrow.

"His Majesty died at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. After His Majesty had brought this morning's audience to a conclusion, he appeared to be quite well and proceeded to luncheon as usual. Towards the end of the meal he gave evidence of indisposition and was compelled to retire to bed at 2:30 P. M. His majesty passed away peacefully, the symptoms indicating heart failure."

This bulletin tells concisely the story of the death scene, which found every one, even those who realized the increasing feebleness of the King, unprepared for the sudden shock.

The death of King Christian has plunged half the courts of Europe into the deepest mourning and brought a sense of personal loss as well as of sincere grief to everyone throughout the Kingdom of Denmark, reaching even the humblest cottage, evidences of which are shown everywhere tonight. It has cast a pall over the palaces of the monarchs of Great Britain, Russia, Norway and Greece.

The quick taking away of this distinct personality, who has for so long been a center of interest, not only in his own country, but throughout the civilized world, almost paralyzed the community and unnerved the business world of Denmark.

Even late to-night men of affairs are only recovering from the shock and beginning to prepare for the changed conditions. Every flag in the city is at half-mast; all places of amusement are closed, and the people walk the streets as though they were passing through the chamber of death itself. This afternoon when the flag flying over the palace was placed at half-mast, the news spread from mouth to mouth. It was not believed by the great crowds which gradually assembled in the square in front of the Amalianbrog Palace, but when uncertainty gave place to certainty, those in the assemblage shed tears and dispersed in respectful silence, many baring there heads and saulting the palace as they went by.

King Christian appeared to be in his usual health this morning. After taking breakfast he held a public audience, which it has been his custom to do every Monday morning. The reception to-day was largely attended, and His Majesty conversed freely and affably with a number of officials and other persons. When the function was over the King, though appearing to be slightly fatigued, attended luncheon with the members of his family, among whom were the Dowager Empress of Russia, and his brother, General Prince Hans. During the meal His Majesty complained of indisposition and was assisted to his bedroom by the Dowager Empress and Prince Hans. A court physician was summoned, but by the time he arrived the King had collapsed. The physician used prompt restoratives but his efforts were useless and King Christian expired, almost without uttering a word, in the arms of the Dowager Empress and in the presence of the court physician and Prince Hans. Just as the King breathed his last Crown Prince Frederick entered the room and the other members of the family arrived shortly afterwards.

Nothing is definitely known to-night concerning the arrangements for the funeral, and it will necessarily be somtime before anything regarding these arrangements is officially announced.

Telegrams and cablegram of condolence are pouring in to-night including messages from all the soverigns of Europe and the Danish colonies.

Premier Christensen to-night tendered the resignation of the cabinet to the new King who expressed a wish that the present ministry should continue to carry on the affairs of the government.

Both houses of Parliament will assemble to-morrow, when their respective presidents will formally announce the death of King Christian. At 3 o'clock P. M., the ministers will assemble in the hall of the Folkething to receive the royal message announcinf the accession of Frederick the Eighth. Public announcement of the death of King Christian and the accession of King Frederick will be made at noon from the balcony of the palace.

It had been known for some time that King Christian's health was failing. His physicians recommended a change of air and the King decided to take their advice. It was his intention to go south in the near future, accompanied by the Dowager Empress of Russia.

Father of Queen of England.

London, Jan. 29.—The sudden death of King Christian, of Denmark, called the "Father-in-law of Europe," will place the majority of the royal houses of Europe in mourning. The rulers of Russia, Great Britain, Greece, Sweden and Norway are directly related to the dead monarch, either personally or through their consorts. His sons and daughters were preparing for their annual trip to Copenhagen for the purpose of celebrating his eighty-eighth birthday.

Queen Alexander received the news of the death of her father at Windsor. It came as a great shock to her, as apparently there had been no previous intimation of any indisposition.

In view of the death of the King, the official and other engagements in which the British court is concerned will be postponed or cancelled, although nothing affecting the arrangements has yet been given out. It is said that the opening of Parliament cannot take place February 19th, according to the original programme, as it must be opened by a royal commission as in the latter of Queen Victoria's reign. It is expected that a memorial service in honor of the late King Christian will be held in the Chapel Royal, St. James' Palace, simultaneously with the funeral services held in Denmark.

The New King.

Copenhagen, Jan. 29.—The new King of Denmark, who will ascend the throne in his sixty-second year, bears the weight of his years lightly, and is almost as popular as was his father. His bearing is stately, and his manner quiet. He is noted for his culture, and possesses many foreign distinctions.

The new queen, Louisa, is reputed to be the tallest and richest princess Europe. She is a handsome woman of the blonde type and reflects the beauty of her famous grandmother, Desiree Clary, the tradesman's daughter, who captivated Bonaparte and married Marshal Bernadotte, who subsequently became King of Sweden and Norway. The new queen and her husband have adhered to the simplicity characteristic of the Danish court, showing the nation the happy spectacle of a united couple, living on terms of the closest affection and sympathy with their eight children.

Frederick is credited with having a less determined character than his father, while it is whispered that the new queen possesses the stronger character of the two, and possibly this latter fact will have considerable influence on the policy of the new king. Both are deeply imbued with religious convictions.

CONGRESS HONORS GEN. WHEELER'S MEMORY

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The Chinese boycott and the administration of the forest reserves divided the attention of the Senate today. The Chinese question came up in connection with a resolution by Mr. Tillman directing an investigation by the committee on immigration. Mr. Tillman modified the resolution by omitting the major portion of the preamble and after considerable discussion the resolution was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

Mr Hepburn raised the question regarding the reservations. He sharply criticized the methods of the forestry bureau and charged it with maintaining a press combination for the people attacking him. He declared, however, to hold the responsibility for this course. He said that the course was calculated to retard the development of the West. Mr. DuBois, took a contrary view, defending the policy pursued and contending that it was in the interest of the arid region.

Mr. Tillman had read a letter addressed to him by the Red Rock Fuel Company, owners of 4,000 acres of coal land in West Virginia, setting forth discriminations against that company by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for the reason that the railroad did not want to permit the Red Rock coal to come into competition with coal from mines in which the railroad is interested. The letter asks for an investigation of all bituminous coal carrying roads. An order from the Interstate Commerce Commission to desist from the discriminations practiced was also read, which order, the coal company says, has been ignored. In commenting on the case Mr. Tillman said it appeared to him that the relief could be obtained under State law and if this was impossible under the laws of West Virginia that State stands disgraced.

Mr. Elkins said relief could be had under West Virginia laws.

The Red Rock Company, alleged in its letter that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was under the control of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which Mr. Tillman said, should be investigated.

The resolution of Mr. Tillman asking the committee on immigration to investigate the facts of the Chinese boycott of American goods was laid before the Senate. The preamble which alleged that Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese minister to the United States, had been a leader in the movement, was objected to by Mr. Teller, Mr. Lange and Mr. Warren. The latter Senator said Wu Ting Fang has explicitly denied the charge in conversation with the Senator when he was in China last Summer. Mr. Tillman withdrew the preamble. Mr. Tillman read from the President's message on the harshness of the exclusion laws.

Mr. Dubois said he would vote for the resolution, but thought an investigation would not show that the exclusion laws had been too rigidly enforced. Mr. Dubois referred to the South and the demand for Chinamen to supplant negro labor, which remark provoked disclaimers from Mr. Clay and Mr. Tillman. The latter said the South had conditions bad enough now without further mixing them up.

Honor to Gen. Wheeler.

Washington, Jan. 29.—What is considered a strike at the railroads was taken by the House today in the adoption of a resolution introduced by Mr. Gillespie, of Texas, calling on the President to furnish information as to the existence of an alleged agreement in violation of the interstate commerce law, between the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio, Northern Central, and Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroad companies. Opposition to the resolution did not develop until after it had been declared adopted by the speaker. At this point Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, moved against it with a motion to reconsider. This motion was laid on the table with 57 Republican votes united with the Democrats which makes it impossible to reconsider the resolution without a two-thirds vote of the House.

The House passed the Mann general bridge bill.

A tribute to the memory of General Joseph Wheeler was paid by the amendment of a bill under consideration so as to name one of the streets of the city "Wheeler street." In taking this action, Mr. Sherman, of New York, spoke in words of praise of the dead general.

The House adjourned until tomorrow.

GEN. WHEELER LAID TO REST

Funeral in Washington Yesterday Afternoon and Interment in Arlington Cemetery

THOUSANDS PAID TRIBUTE

President Roosevelt Attended—Great Southern Cavalry Leader Laid by Other Veterans of Two Wars —Wheeler's Cavalry.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Home to the Southland which he loved so well they brought the body of the late Major General Joseph Wheeler, retired and laid it to rest in Arlington this afternoon on a shaded slope overlooking the Potomac near to the graves of men who, like himself, were veterans of two wars. Thousands uncovered their heads in silent tribute as the impressive caravan of mourners made its way slowly out Pennsylvania avenue this afternoon beneath a wealth of sunshine. All along the line of march, the white carnation marked the memory of the late William McKinley, and on the casket wrapped in the folds of the American flag, there bloomed a cluster of these pure flowers. They were placed on the altar in St. John's Episcopal church at the benning of the burial service, and as the choir softly chanted the closing hymn, "Peace, Perfect Peace," a white robed priest took the flowers from the altar and place them reverently at the head of the casket amid the folds of the red, white and blue. Beside them bloomed the beautiful flowers sent by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

It was an appropriate tribute which the nation paid. From 10 o'clock this morning, until two this afternoon, while the body lay in state in the historic little church on LaFayette Square, thousands of his friends passed up the aisle to the outer chancel and bowed in silence as they looked for the last time on the warrior's face. His comrades in the great war and in the war with Spain, his friends while in Congress, and the sons of the veterans of two wars, the Daughters the Confederacy, were all represented in this silent steady stream of people that passed through St. John's today. Shortly before noon Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador, who was a warm friend of General Wheeler, arrived at St. John's church taking his place in line, passed reverently to the head of the casket and looked for the last time into the face of the great cavalry leader.

By 2 o'clock, the nave of the church was filled with gray haired men, the place of honor to the right of the President in the right transept being given to "Wheeler's old cavalry," who came on from the South by special invitation of the family. Back of them sat other Confederate veterans. In the body of the church, were many veterans of the war with Spain. Lieutenant General and Mrs. Chaffee were among the friends who sat near the family. The cabinet was represented by Secretary Taft, and Postmaster General Cortelyou. Two minutes before the hour for the services to begin the entire congregation arose while the President, preceded by his military aide, Col. Bromwell, and his naval aide, Lieutenant Commander Key, in full uniform, and accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, entered the church from the transept door and were assigned to the first row which they shared with the family who entered immediately afterward. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were both in mourning.

The service was brief and impressive, and followed with a few exceptions, the regular liturgy for the burial of the dead. There were four priests in the chancel, which was banked with flowers from friends and associates far and wide. Rev. Dr. Earnest Stires, rector of St. Thomas church, New York, read the selections beginning, "I am the resurrection and the life." The lesson was read by the Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the church of the Epiphany and Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's, both of this city, concluded the service, leading the congregation in the recital of the Apostle's Creed and the reading the prayers for the dead. Two hymns were sung, both favorites of General Wheeler. They were "Abide with me, fast falls the eventide," and "Peace, Perfect Peace." During the singing of the latter hymn, the pall-bearers took their position at the front of the casket which was borne to the casson awaiting it at the transept door by eight sergeants of engineers in uniform. Throughout the service a guard of honor consisting of a captain of engineers and two sergeants stood at attention beside the casket. Captain Fitzhugh Lee, an aide to the President's staff, was one of the military escort who accompanied the body to Arlington.

The line of march was down Fifth street to Pennsylvania avenue, on past the White House and the War Department, and across the aqueduct bridge to Arlington. The pageant as it moved to the strains of the Dead March from Saul made an impressive picture, witnessed by thousands who stood with bared heads. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt returned immediately to the White House after the service, remaining in the church, however, until the family had left.

When the funeral cortege reached Fort Myer en route to Arlington, which lies just beyond, cannon boomed a Major General's salute of thirteen guns. It was a few minutes past 4 o'clock when it reached the cemetery grounds, where a vast crowd had assembled. The cortege entered the grounds to the music of a cavalry band, a dirge with muffled drums. Following came the cavalry, dismounted. The casket wrapped with the Stars and Stripes was lifted from the caisson by six sergeants of cavalry and borne to the grave preceded by Rev. Dr. Ernest Stires, of New York, and the honorary pall-bearers.

As the casket was lowered into the ground the troopers, who had been formed in line down the hill below the grave, were brought to "present arms." Rev. Dr. Stires then read the committal service. A male quartette sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Shall We Gather at the River." The cavalry fired three volleys over the grave, when Fay Wilson, who sounded taps over the grave of President McKinley, sounded taps over the grave of General Wheeler. The bugler from the regular army sounded reveille.

After the service hundreds passed by the grave as a last mark of their affection.

WRECK BREAKING UP.

The beach near Lumina pavilion was strewn with wreckage on Sunday from the old hulk of the blockade runner that has been lying off shore there for years. The wreck began breaking up in Thursday night's storm and among the pieces that drifted up was an old iron safe. This was broken open by Mr. H. E. Bonitz and others but nothing of intrinsic value was found therein. Mr. Bonitz found an old watch chain and a rusted carving knife which he brought home as relics.

It is supposed that the hulk which is breaking up is that of the blockade-runner Hebe, which was driven ashore under fire of the Federal blockaders during the war. The Hebe and the blockade-runner Dee are known to have gone down about off Lumina, but the wreck in question is thought to be that of the former. The General Beauregard went aground farther down towards Carolina Beach. Another ship lost in blockade running was the Emma. The safe which has now been cast up ashore was probably relieved of everything of value before it was beached to escape possession of the enemy.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATTION.

Place of Holding Annual Meeting—Pardon From Roosevelt.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 29.—The executive committee of the North Carolina Bar Association was in session here several hours to-night considering the question of the place for the annual session to be held during next Summer. Secretary J. Crawford Biggs gave out a statement that no announcement of the place selected will be made until satisfactory special rates at a hotel and on the railroads have been secured for members attending. The members of the committee in attendance were Ed Chambers Smith, Clement Manly, T. T. Hicks, Ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson and J. Crawford Biggs.

Official notice is received here of a pardon granted by President Roosevelt for J. T. Corbett, serving five years in the Federal prison at Atlanta for the embezzlement of money from registered letters while postmaster at Selma, Johnston county. He was convicted and sentenced in June, 1902.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Two Convicts from Pitt—Large Pin in Child's Throat.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 29.—Sheriff Tucker, of Pitt county, was here today to deliver to the penitentiary two negroes, one to serve 25 years for burglary and the other 12 years for secret assault. He says that during the term of the Superior Court just closed, one of the negroes implicated in the sensational killing of the county constable there was sentenced to be hanged and the other to 25 years for murder in the second degree, but both took an appeal to the Supreme Court, and are still in the Pitt county jail.

The seven-year-old daughter of Geo. W. Norwood, chief clerk of the Secretary of State, swallowed a pin last night and it hung in her throat in such a manner that physicians had a very difficult and dangerous task in removing it. It was thought once that it would have to be cut out but they finally succeeded in getting it without a serious operation.

AGED RAILROAD MEN.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 29.—A charter was issued to-day for The Home for Disabled and Aged Road Men, an institution which it is proposed to establish at Greensboro for disabled and aged railroad men. There is no capital stock, the company being authorized to raise money by subscription for the purchase of lands, erection of necessary buildings and for maintenance. The incorporators are J. B. White, J. G. May and R. E. Davis.

The resignation of Capt. A. P. Adrian, of Wilmington, as Inspector of Small Arms Practice for the Second Regiment was received in the office of the Adjutant General to-day. A commission is issued to W. T. Rodman as captain of Company G, Second Regiment, of Washington, to succeed Captain Handy, resigned.

Not a Certainty.

The Star learns from Mr. T. W. Wood that it is by means certain that he will build a new hotel on the Seaboard Air Line property, on North Front street. There are many things now being considered and unless Mr. Wood can see his way clear to erect a building that will in every way suit the purpose he may not embark in the enterprise noted. It is to be sincerely hoped that nothing will be put in the way of the project and that Mr. Wood will be encouraged in every way possible.

AFTER JUSTICE DEUEL'S SCALP.

James W. Osborne Summoning Witnesses Against Judge.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Jan. 25.—Steps were taken today by James W. Osborne, counsel for Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, in his recent trial of criminal libel, to follow up the disclosures by witnesses in hearing of that case. Today's move is in the direction of John Doe proceedings. A representative of Mr. Osborne secured from a police magistrate a dozen subpoenaes for witnesses whose identity was not disclosed. It was definitely stated at the district attorney's office today that if evidence is found sufficient to warrant such action it will be submitted to the appellate division with a view to having the judges of that court proceed with measures looking to the removal of Justice Deuel from the bench.

STRUCK ON R. R. CROSSING.

Narrow Escape of Capt. R. C. Orrell Yesterday Afternoon.

Capt. Robert C. Orrell, of the firm of Orrell & Alexander, had a narrow escape from serious injury on the Nutt street crossing of the A. C. L. early yesterday afternoon. A buggy in which he was returning from the Carolina Central depot was struck by a shifting engine and cars. The buggy was partially demolished and the horse was injured to some extent, but Capt. Orrell fortunately escaped with only a bad fright. It was an exceedingly close call.

Progress of Wilmington.

The Charlotte Chronicle very thoughtfully remarks: 'We were very much pleased to print, yesterday, an account of the looking up of Wilmington. That city needs, of all things, a new custom house, and no government officer who inspects the present building will deny that fact. The commerce of the port demands a larger house, even if common decency did not demand a neater one. We are with Wilmington in this movement for a new custom house and shall endeavor to interest Congressman Webb in the matter, for Mr. Webb, be it known, is a worker."

American Barque in Distress.

The American barque Ethel, 653 tons, Capt. Albertson, arrived yesterday at Southport in tow of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Seminole. She was picked up off this coast yesterday morning in a leaking condition and will probably make temporary repairs before proceeding. She is from Elizabethport, N. J., Jan. 20th, to Charleston, S. C., with cargo of coal.
